Top 50 questions-réponses pour maîtriser les temps anglais

Une précision essentielle : aucune liste ne peut garantir, à elle seule, une maîtrise parfaite. La maîtrise apparaît lorsque vous savez :

1. choisir spontanément le bon temps ;
2. expliquer pourquoi vous l'avez choisi ;
3. contraster ce temps avec un temps voisin ;
4. produire votre propre réponse sans mémoriser mécaniquement le modèle.

Les questions marquées constituent les dix exercices diagnostiques les plus importants.

1. Present Simple

Fonction

Habitudes, opinions stables, caractéristiques, vérités générales et mécanismes récurrents.

Structure :

subject + base verb

À la troisième personne : he/she/it + verb-s

1. What makes a belief rational rather than merely comforting?

Model answer:

A belief becomes rational when it rests on credible evidence, survives serious objections, and remains open to revision.

Pourquoi ?

On définit ici un principe général, et non une situation temporaire.

2. Why do people sometimes interpret criticism as hostility?Model answer:

People often interpret criticism as hostility because they confuse their identity with the beliefs they hold.

3. How does power influence the way people perceive reality?Model answer:

Power often hides the structures that benefit those who possess it and makes inequality appear natural.

4. What habits sustain trust in a relationship?Model answer:

Honesty, consistency, attentive listening, and the willingness to admit mistakes sustain trust over time.

Piège :

On ne dit généralement pas I am believing , I am knowing ou I am understanding pour une opinion ou un état mental stable.
